

Guide to using service stickers

To be used for consignments of a delicate nature that require a hand sort. Can be used in conjunction with timed and Saturday stickers.

Fluorescent sticker to be used on consignments that are to be delivered before 9am.

To be used for consignments that contain a liquid and require a hand sort. Can be used in conjunction with timed and Saturday stickers, also add fragile sticker.

Fluorescent sticker to be used on consignments that are to be delivered before 10am.

To be used for consignments of high value that require segregation and additional scanning under high definition CCTV. Can be used in conjunction with timed and Saturday stickers.

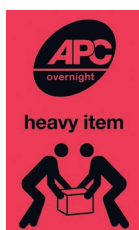

Fluorescent sticker to be used on consignments that are to be delivered before 12pm.

To be used for consignments that contain goods of a perishable nature that may have alternative delivery instructions.

Fluorescent sticker to be used on consignments that are to be delivered on a Saturday, in conjunction with one of the above timed stickers.

To be used for consignments that contain individual items over 25kg in weight (up to a maximum of 30kg).

To be used for consignments that contain live fish.

Delivering for your business

